

Healing with Horses Coping with the Holidays

Support for kids and teens coping with a death loss

This is a two week workshop offered for all ages 5-18. We combine equine-assisted activities with peer support to share stories, play games and be together remembering our special people who have died.

We learn various ways to care for horses and ourselves during the holidays. We will be talking about what helps us and what things we want to do this holiday season with our families. You must pre-register to participate.

Dates: December 8th and 15th only
